Guidelines

There exist a guideline for using our Hackerspace. Yes we encourage creating a TAZ (Temporary Autonomous Zone) but when a bunch of hackers come together and as everyone has a different point of view what "cleaning" and being "excellent" to each other means - this seemed necessary.

Space Commission

The Space Commission (SpaCo) is a group of people whom have volunteered for the task of managing ChaosStuff as facility.

Badge Access

Two rooms. One badge. If you'd like to have one, please get in touch with info@c3l.lu or pop by at a ChaosMeeting.

Process

1. Become/Be a member of the association.
2. Come regularly to the ChaosStuff (+- 2 Months).
3. Put in a badge request query to the SpaCo.
4. After the SpaCo has reviewed and accepted your request, you'll receive the municipality's forms.
    1. The municipality's forms will have to be filled out.
    2. You'll have to contact the municipality's Service Architecte - Maintenance.
5. If your request is granted, a key deposit of 10€/badge must be paid.
6. To conclude, your username will be put down in the official key owner registry.

Kitchen

There is a full-featured kitchen provided to all members and visitors of the ChaosStuff. For those whom don't like / have time / don't have to much trust in their cooking skills, there are several - tested by us - delivery-services nearby. For those who are up for a cooking challenge, visit our Foodhacking list.

Price list

As we are a non profit organization, you can buy some drinks and food at us. Here you can find the price list
