(Gen)AI

Generative AI is, whether we want it or not, quite present in society, including the news. It is only a matter of time before we get asked about it, f.i. by the press. We should discuss this topic, and write down our thoughts, as to have a coherent public stance.

What lens would the press approach this with? What exactly do we need to prepare? This is a broad topic.

Random Links (food for thought)

- AI and copyright
    - Europe's "Text and Data Mining" (TDM) exception is the legal basis for AI training
    - German court says: "training is allowed, memorization is not", you cannot repeat a song's lyrics.
- Niche Substack article about AI nightmare scenario impacts the market
    - Context:
        - fictional "memo from June 2028", imagining how the current AI boom could trigger a systemic economic crisis
        - core thesis: AI doesn't need to fail to cause a crisis, it just needs to succeed fast enough
    1. AI agentic coding tools destroy SaaS (software as a service)
    2. AI agents displace human interaction (e.g. travel booking, insurance renewal, financial advice)
    3. Overall impact on many white-collar workers becoming redundant
    - FT calls it out (and The Economist too), saying the economics of the article don't make sense, but calls it 'interesting as a "thought-provoking example of scenario analysis"'

ID/Age verification

- Age verification through selfie or ID everywhere
    - Discord, Minecraft, social media, etc.
- cost: data privacy, surveillance
